Writing an update for the month of November was particularly difficult because we can't seem to remember much of it—it went by so quickly! But as we go back through the calendar, there are definitely some highlights we should praise the Lord for.

Looking Back: November

Thank you for praying for our border trip in the middle of the month. We traveled over 1,400 miles, and we know the Lord was keeping us safe. Paul behaved very well and even seemed to enjoy most of the 25 hours of car time. We are thankful that the Lord allowed us to renew all the necessary paperwork for an additional 180 days.

We had a wonderful Thanksgiving meal with the Goldfuss family as well as several from the church. Since Thanksgiving is not a recognized holiday here, many in the church still had work or school. However, when the Goldfusses ran out of water AND propane right in the middle of Thanksgiving dinner preparations, we were thankful the delivery trucks were carrying out business as usual. The Lord met both needs unusually quickly. We had a very nice meal and enjoyed wonderful fellowship thanking the Lord for His many benefits.

Our Sunday night Bible study continues to be an encouragement. The family from Toluca has not attended as regularly this month, but we have had some great conversations with the host family from our church as they truly seem to desire to know how best to structure their family's life around biblical principles. One of their neighbors has come with them to church a couple of times this month. We are thanking the Lord for this family's outreach among their friends and neighbors.

Morgan is back from Uruguay and gives a good report of his time there. He has preached the last two Wednesday evenings and one Sunday service this month. It is exciting to see him continue to be used of God in ministry.

Looking Ahead: December

We are looking forward to another young couples' meeting today. We were able to get enough books for everyone in the group while we were in Texas, and we are looking forward to beginning our study on humility as we read through the book together. Please be in prayer for all of us that the Lord would change our hearts to be more humble in our marriages and in all of life.

Jon has begun what will probably be a four or five week series on prayer during the Sunday night Bible study. Please pray that God will use this study in our hearts as He used the series on giving our attention to God's Word. He is also planning on spending one or two weeks this month to share what the Bible says about the significance of Christmas.

Of course Christmas is the big event on everyone's mind this month. Our desire is that this time of year would really be a time of meditating on the overwhelming reality that the Word was made flesh. God came to be with us so that we may someday be with Him for all eternity. We pray that this fact would overshadow all the decorations and food and festivity in our hearts and the hearts of those in our church family.

We want to thank you for your prayers for us, and we know you will all have a wonderful Christmas if you dwell on the joy it is that "the Lord has come!"

For His Glory,
Jon, Andrea, and Paul Crocker
